

WATERHAVEN OPENS IN MIDTOWN

July 30, 2009

Atlanta was a lucky city last month ~ restaurant veteran Joe McCarthy opened Waterhaven in Midtown! Along with Chef Chris Lee, Joe created a haven for local, sustainable and phenomenal cuisine. At the inaugural Chef's Strictly Social gathering on July 1 Chef Lee impressed the guests with his ingenuity and culinary talent.

GFA member Waterhaven is committed to sustainable practices and works with area farmers to ensure the menu is infused with local ingredients.

Waterhaven is located at 75 5th Street in Midtown. Join the GFA in supporting Waterhaven by visiting the restaurant for a phenomenal dining experience.

Here is some copy provided by the pr firm, Melissa Libby & Associates:

Located within Midtown's Technology Square, WaterHaven Restaurant offers a welcoming retreat from the hustle and bustle of Atlanta's urban activity. The seasonally-inspired eatery features contemporary American fare that highlights local farms and purveyors.

Posted by Holly Elmore at 3:27 PM 0 comments

<http://gfa-ga.blogspot.com/2009/07/waterhaven-opens-in-midtown.html>

MELISSA LIBBY & ASSOCIATES